

PROSON SCHOOL OF ICONOLOGY & ICONOGRAPHY

Workshop: October 1-7, 2017
Antiochian Village Conference & Retreat Center

Join us for an intensive 6-day icon workshop in the beautiful Laurel Highlands of western Pennsylvania. Students will learn both the theory and practice of icon writing, using methods dating to 16th century Russia.

The materials used in this workshop are all natural and include: egg tempera, pure gold leaf, earth and mineral pigments, and carved wooden boards prepared with gesso. All materials are included in the registration fee for beginners. Previous artistic experience is not necessary, as icon writing is as much a spiritual discipline as it is an artistic expression.

This workshop will be conducted by master iconographer and founder of the Prosopon School, Vladislav Andrejev (pictured at right), and/or his son Nikita. Beginners will be given step-by-step instructions to complete their own icon of Archangel Michael. Students who have attended previous Prosopon workshops will be assigned an icon appropriate to their experience and skill level.*
