Class Description

This Church Mural Painting, Introductory Level Class is the second of its kind to be offered by the Prosopon School of Iconology and Iconography. You are encouraged to get your reservations in early.

Dates: April 1 - 6, 2024, 9 AM to 5 PM

Main instructions will be given between 9 AM and 5 PM, though the “after hours” study and class participation might be needed.

In this class students will be introduced to the main principles and techniques of Church Mural Painting. Students will learn and practice new iconographic techniques with a use of mineral paint on the wall, while working on the mural of “The Parable of Wedding Feast” in the St Joseph of Damascus Chapel in St Nicholas Antiochian Orthodox Church.

The icon shown represents the idea of the depiction of the Parable, though an actual mural will differ somewhat from the image on the brochure.

In preparation for this class please read the Parable of the Wedding Feast in Matthew 22:1-14.

What to Bring

We ask students to bring their favorite brushes (approximate sizes 1, 2 and 4), and some plastic pallets.

Total Cost

$775 per student

Meals

Snacks and vegan soup and salad lunches (Monday-Friday) will be provided.

Registration Cost does not include students room and board expenses.

A block of single or double occupancy rooms at $119 per day are being held on a first come-first served basis at the Prince Conference Center at Calvin University and are available to those who register and are paid in full by March 1, 2024. To make online reservations go to princecc.com (code STNICH) or call the Front Desk (616-526-7201).
