

2020 ICON WRITING WORKSHOP

Mark your calendars now!

JANUARY 20—25, 2020

In January, you will have the unique opportunity to participate in a 6-day icon writing workshop with master iconographer, Dmitri Andreyev, in beautiful Laguna Beach, CA.

The 6-day intensive workshop involves the study of the Byzantine-Russian tradition of icon-writing. This multilayered process will be presented along with the theological meaning of each step and the rich symbolic associations of the natural materials used. We will be writing the icon of the Guardian Angel shown above.

Dmitri is from the Prosopon School of Iconography, founded by his father Vladislav Andreyev. He has preserved the ancient Russian-Byzantine tradition of iconography using only natural materials, including ground pigments and egg tempura.

You can learn more about Dmitri on his website—www.dmitriandreyeviconography.com—and the Prosopon School of Iconography at—www.prosoponschool.org.

Workshop Schedule: Monday, January 20th—Saturday, January 25th,
9:00 a.m.—5:00 p.m., with an hour for lunch

Workshop Fee: $720—A deposit of $350 is required with the balance to be paid prior to the workshop. (Fee includes the cost of the 9-1/2" x 12-1/2" gessoed board, materials, pigments, gold leaf, and a set of beginner brushes.)
